

MONETARY COLLECTIONS AND THEIR BENEFICIARIES

September 2018

Every once and a while, people ask “we’ve got many envelopes in our packets and on Faith Direct, where do all those collections go?” Here’s a helpful breakdown:

Main Income of our Parish and Subject to an 11.5% assessment of the Diocese (16.5% if we didn’t have a school)

Sundays
Christmas
Easter
Holy Days-Feasts

100% at St. Joseph for specific purposes/ministries

Maintenance and Repair Fund
Music Heritage Fund
Mission of Hope
Ministry of Assistance
Liturgical Memorial Fund
Our Parish Social Concerns
Christmas and Easter Flowers
St. Joseph Parish Endowment Fund
Bequests or Specific Gifts

100% given to others (Designated Collections)

Catholic Charities
Catholic University of America
Church in Eastern Europe
Black & Native Missions
Catholic Relief Services
Holy Land (Good Friday)
Peter’s Pence
Newman Campus Ministry
Catholic Home Missions
Catholic Communications
Mission Sunday
Campaign for Human Development
Retirement Fund for Religious
Church in Latin America
Annual Missionary Appeal
Faith & Values Appeal for Education
Archdiocese for the Military
SJJ Teacher Parity Fund
El Salvador Sister Parish

As always, we are grateful for the spiritual, physical, and financial support are offered to our parish community. While information on our Finance Council and Annual Reports may be found at www.sjohio.org/finance, we’re always happy to address any concerns or questions. Just ask!